

ArtsWestchester Visitor Code of Conduct

ArtsWestchester is committed to fostering a safe and welcoming environment for all. Our historic Bank & Trust Building features 4,800ft² of presentation space, soaring 20-foot high ceilings and distinctive palladium windows, making it a unique venue to experience the work of Hudson Valley Regional artists in thematic, community-centered programs. We invite you to visit our gallery to connect, to learn, to imagine, and to be inspired.

Your health and safety are our top priorities. ArtsWestchester is committed to following guidelines issued by the Centers for Disease Control (CDC), New York State, and Westchester County for increased health and safety procedures. We ask that you observe all signage and instructions, and we reserve the right to ask anyone not following safety measures to leave the premises. If you are feeling unwell, we request that you stay home. We are happy to help you reschedule your visit.

In an effort to keep our visitors safe, we have implemented the following policies:

- Timed entry tickets are required for admission.
- Face coverings are required for all visitors over the age of two, even if fully vaccinated. Please keep those noses covered!
- Maintain physical distancing. Keep at least six feet from others.
- Wash hands and use hand sanitizer regularly during your visit, especially after handling exhibition materials.
- Touchless exhibition guides/artwork tours are available via QR codes positioned throughout the gallery.
- One way traffic and/or other directional signs to manage flow of traffic and promote social distancing.
- Reduced elevator occupancy.

While you're here, you can expect ArtsWestchester's staff to:

- Limit the number of visitors in the space to facilitate social distancing.
 - Wear face coverings at all times.
 - Complete COVID-19 screenings prior to showing up for work, and stay home when we're feeling unwell.
 - Regularly clean high-touch services.
 - Participate in Contact Tracing.
 - Open windows to facilitate air circulation.
